23/10/23 This question has been dealt with in connection with the establishment of Bench Courts, already submitted for orders. ~~The present~~ Panels involved in this case, depend upon on the orders to be passed in the file referred to above. If the order is to retain these gumashtas in their present places, subject to their being lent for Bench Court work, no orders are necessary in this case. Otherwise, the existing gumashtas may be transferred to the Bench Courts to be established and thus absorbed. Question of pay will require consideration. Taluk judicial gumashtas get 25-1-3 while clerks for Bench Courts are proposed on Rs 25/- p.m.

places + deputes to work — two Bench Courts or whether they may be transferred to the Bench Courts is for orders. The former appears to be the better plan, but the Dewan has two days ago passed all facilities for bench Courts, when the members pressed for a clerk to appear for each Court.

The order also takes into Calculation savings effected by the abolition of the Distt Excise Office. Whether this has to be given effect to is also for orders. In that case, three clerks for the D's Office + 2 for each Sub-Division will have to be given for Excise work.

In the present, the Distt magistrate may be authorised to absorb the three ~~Rs~~ Judicial ministerials of the Sub Divisions in the vacancies of Rs 35/- & Rs 30/- in the new Courts. The other points may also be considered together and a comprehensive order passed.

The Chief Judicial Magistrate of the Sub Division may be absorbed in the New Establishments. The Judicial Magistrate of Nuksey may be asked to do the work of Bench Courts. If the District Magistrate thinks that the file of any particular Bench Court is heavy & requires the services of a whole time Clerk, recommendation may be made to that effect. The District Executive Magistrate must not be absorbed until orders are received about the absorption of the District Executive Magistrate.

The pending work which the New Magistrate may be asked to retain in their file can be looked after by the New Establishment.
